Sen. Bricker Says
He and Sen. George
Are In Substantial
Treaty Agreement

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Bricker (R-Ohio) said today that he and Sen. George (D-Ga.) are in "substantial agreement" on the need for a constitutional amendment on treaty power and may agree on language later.

Bricker told an informal news conference in advance of the Senate's resumption of debate on his amendment that he and George have discussed a possible compromise.

"We are in agreement on the need for a constitutional amendment and before the Senate gets around to voting on the question we may be in agreement on language," Bricker said.

This indication of possible combined proposals, both of which the White House thus far has found objectionable, came as Sen. Knowland of California, the GOP floor leader, predicted that the Senate will start voting this week on provisions of the pending Bricker proposal.

Knowland said he might talk to Bricker and George further today to see if something can be worked out the White House would accept.

George, who previously had felt that the Senate might kill all of the constitutional amendments, said today he thinks some measure will pass.

George's proposal won support from Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala.). Sparkman said, etc., 2nd graf Sparkman said, etc., in an interview he believes George has "put into simple words" what Sen. Bricker (R-Ohio) sought to do in an amendment proposal which has been criticized vigorously by President Eisenhower.

"The George amendment will give assurance to those who actually fear that a treaty might infringe upon constitutional rights," Sparkman said.

George planned conferences today with Sen. Knowland of California, the Republican floor leader, and possibly with Bricker on proposed changes in his substitute. The Senate resumes discussion of the constitutional change today, with George predicting that a showdown vote may be reached by Thursday.

As it stands now, George's substitute would nullify treaties or international agreements which conflict with the Constitution. It also would provide that an international agreement, other than a treaty, should not become effective as internal law except by act of Congress. Such agreements are not now subject to Senate ratification, as are treaties.

To his second provision George proposed adding language which would exempt the President's war and diplomatic recognition powers. George studied over the weekend a memorandum from Atty. Gen. Brownell which apparently suggested alternative language to that offered by the Georgia senator.

George said that until he discusses this new counteroffer with Knowland and Bricker he won't be able to say whether it is acceptable to him.

Meanwhile, Brownell was silent on a weekend demand from Sen. Hennings (D-Mo.) that the attorney general come out against any compromise on the treaty power issue.

"There can be no compromise on this issue without compromising the Constitution itself," Hennings declared.

Everett England Hurt In Accident

Everett R. England, 54, of 1511 West Main, was painfully injured about 1:30 p. m. Monday when struck by a boom on the Chamberlin Service Co., wrecker, while working at Chamberlin's.

England, with Elliott Steele, 314 East 10th, was rusing a steel sign pole which was being lifted by the crane on the wrecker, operated by George Chamberlin, when the clutch on the winch suddenly slipped causing the cables to release and drop the booms. One boom struck England. Steel jumped and was not hit.

The injured man was rushed to the Bothwell Hospital in the McLaughlin ambulance and Dr. Karl Gonser attended him. He suffered a severe bruise on the left side of his face and lacerations. He was admitted to the hospital for observation.

Holidays Mixed

Sunday was a holiday, St. Valentine's Day, but the weatherman got confuzzled, as Lt. Abner might say. With 75 degrees of heat in the afternoon, after a sprinkle of real rain early in the morning, he thought it was All Fool's Day.

Mostly cloudy tonight and Tuesday. Low tonight in the 40s. High Tuesday in the 50s.

The temperature at 7 a. m. was 61; 70 at 1 p. m. and 71 at 2 p. m.

Reports Only Four Fired for Disloyalty

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Treasury Department has informed Congress that out of 130 "security" dismissals or forced resignations in 1953, four were found to be "disloyal persons" under standards since scrapped.

The information was given to the House Appropriations Committee, which published it today, by Elbert P. Tuttle, acting security officer for the department, which has about 77,000 employees. The committee was considering the department's budget request.

A man doesn't have to be disloyal to be classed as a security risk, Tuttle said. He might be given a "dangerous" rating if he were "a rugged individual" with a

Tells Scheduled Cut In Support Price of Butter

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Benson announced today the government support price for butter, now about 66 cents a pound, will be reduced about eight cents effective April 1.

He said corresponding reductions will be made at the same time in support prices for cheese and dried skim milk.

At a news conference, Benson announced dairy price supports for the marketing year beginning April 1 will be set at 75 per cent of parity. This is the minimum level permitted by law. The present support rate is 90 per cent of parity.

Parity is a standard for measuring farm prices, declared by Benson, to be fair to farmers in relation to prices they pay.

The eight-cent cut in support prices for butter should, in the normal course of trading, lead to a drop of about the same amount in the retail price of butter.

The government has accumulated more than 350 million dollars worth of surplus butter, cheese and dried milk under price support operations.

Some dairymen have been urging lower support prices on the theory that this would bring about increased use of their products.

Weatherman Says This Balmy Lull Is On Way Out

KANSAS CITY (AP)—If you Missourians like heat waves, you'd better enjoy the present one while you can.

The weather man says the unseasonable weather of Sunday and today is on the way out. He says it will be colder in the west and north tonight and over the state Tuesday.

To the north and west of the state this morning a cold air mass is moving in. This will bring an end to the "heat" which set new high readings for the date yesterday.

Kansas City, Columbia, Butler and Rolla had 76 degree readings yesterday. Close behind were Springfield and St. Joseph with 75 and St. Louis with 74. Other readings were Kirksville 72, Malden 70 and Joplin 69.

Low readings tonight are expected to range from the low 30s in the northwest to near 60 in the extreme southeast. Highs Tuesday probably will be near 50 in the northwest to lower 60s in the extreme southeast.

Low readings tonight are expected to range from the low 30s in the northwest to near 60 in the extreme southeast. Highs Tuesday probably will be near 50 in the northwest to lower 60s in the extreme southeast.

Ike Eyes Vacation On Coast

Heads for California
Wednesday for Five Days of Sunshine,
Golf and More Work

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower, just back from a Georgia quail hunt, will leave Wednesday for five days of sun, golf and work in Palm Springs, Calif.

The White House announced today the President plans to leave by plane Wednesday afternoon and will return to Washington next Monday.

Mrs. Eisenhower and a group of staff members will accompany him.

The President will stay at the Smoke Tree ranch home of Paul E. Helms, baking firm executive and personal friend of the President.

James C. Hagerty, White House press secretary, said the President has been visiting frequently to visit Palm Springs by Paul E. Helms, former European cooperation administration chief, who is a neighbor of Helms.

Hagerty said a working office for the President will be set up near the Helms home. Eisenhower plans to hold a news conference Wednesday afternoon, just before taking off for California.

Even before the White House announcement, there had been widespread published reports that Eisenhower planned to visit California.

With the Senate scheduled to start voting later in the week of various compromise versions of the controversial Bricker Amendment on treaty powers, the President was pictured as uncertain when to leave Washington until that issue has been resolved. Efforts are continuing to find a compromise he would agree to.

Eisenhower flew back to the Capitol last night after a weekend of quail shooting at the plantation estate of Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey.

The President brought down 10 birds Friday afternoon and an aide reported he got the legal daily limit of an even dozen on Saturday, then he turned chef and broiled the quail for lunch over a charcoal fire in the open.

Chinese Refuse To Allow Chiang Quit Presidency

TAIPEH, Formosa (AP)—The Central Committee of Nationalist China's Kuomintang (ruling party) today unanimously rejected Chiang Kai-shek's request to step down from the Nationalist presidency.

The 32-man committee nominated Chiang for a six-year term. He said he would announce his decisions tomorrow.

As he had done six years ago Chiang told the party he felt the best interests of his nation would be served if he were not nominated.

He suggested Dr. Hu Shih, former ambassador to Washington, or Yu Yu-jen, head of the Executive Council, for the presidency, and offered, "if I am trusted," to serve either as head of the armed forces or as premier.

Dr. Hu, famed 63 year-old scholar-philosopher, was reported preparing to leave Washington for the National Assembly session which will elect the President March 20.

Yu, head of the nation's highest watchdog body, was generally considered too old—77 for president. Chiang will choose his running mate. Approval will be only a formality.

In a 40-minute speech, Chiang recalled that in 1948 he asked to step down but the party didn't agree.

Two Robberies In Pettis Co. Over Weekend

Richardson Market,
Houstonia Service
Station Entered

Thieves broke into two Pettis County business establishments sometime Sunday night or Monday morning, obtaining several hundred dollars in cash. The Wayne Richardson Grocery, on Highway 50 at State Fair Boulevard, was one place visited, and the other the Standard Oil Co. service station operated by James Rissler at Houstonia.

The Richardson business was entered through a window on the west side of the cafe which adjoins the grocery. Here the thieves removed a screen and knocked a small hole in the window, reached in and unlocked the window.

After gaining entrance to the cafe, the thieves went into the main store, searched three cash registers, picked up between two and three dollars in stamps and then carried out the back door an accounting register which contained four sacks of money, three for the grocery and one for the cafe.

It was apparent the thieves had an automobile at the back door, through which they left the building and carried the register. The amount of money will not be determined until a complete check of the records can be made by Mr. Richardson, but it was indicated the loss would be well over $500.

The break-in was discovered by a waitress at the cafe who notified Sam Lyles, who in turn went to the cafe to investigate. State Highway Patrol Sgt. Ernest Van Winkle and Sheriff John F. Taylor were notified and conducted an investigation.

A short time later Sheriff Taylor was notified of the robbery of the Houstonia Station, and with Sgt. Van Winkle went there to investigate.

At Houstonia the thieves broke a window in the grease room of the station to gain entrance and then entered the office of the station. Here they obtained approximately $150 from the cash register and ransacked the office.

Watkins gave his opinion in an interview as both Republicans and Democrats caught the register. He said a barrage of GOP Lincoln Day oratory and counterattacks. Some of the counterattacks Democrats renewed criticism of the administration flexible farm price support proposals.

But Watkins, just back from a visit to his home state, said he found President Eisenhower and his cabinet post, said he thinks GOP members generally will applaud Benson's replacement of Howard H. Gordon as administrator of the department's Commodity Stabilization Service, its big crop control and price support agency. Watkins said he thinks most Republicans will look on the shift as a "good start" toward firming up GOP control of the department.

Gordon was succeeded last week by James A. McConnell, New York Republican farm leader, in a move expected to be followed by other resignations and by the replacement of Democrats with Republicans on state commodity stabilization committees—farmer groups which help administer federal programs.

Talbott Examines Five Possible AF Academy Sites Near St. Louis

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Secretary of the Air Force Harold E. Talbott examined five possible sites for the proposed Air Force Academy in a quick inspection tour by air over the St. Louis area yesterday.

Talbott was non-committal concerning the chances of this area being chosen as the site for the Academy. A total of 365 sites in 45 states have been submitted for his inspection.

The five sites he inspected here were Weldon Spring; a 5,400 acre St. Albans farm at St. Albans, Mo., owned by the Oscar Johnson estate; a plot two miles north of Weldon Spring at Harvesters; the city-owned Columbia bottoms site at the confluence of the Mississippi and Missouri Rivers and a site near Elsah, Ill., north of Alton.

Charge Stepmother Gouged Out Girl's Eye

GREENSBORO, N.C. (AP)—Doctors today pondered whether to operate on the eyes of a 12-year-old girl whose stepmother is charged with malicious maiming. Mrs. Mae Atkins, 30, of Greensboro, was charged with putting out the right eye of Judy Atkins with her thumb. No explanation was made for the alleged act.

The 5-foot-2, 155-pound Mrs. Atkins was arrested Saturday night after two weeks of investigation by the police department juvenile division.

Benson Reports Friction

Claims Agriculture
Dept. Employees
Seek to Undermine President's Program

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Benson said today some Agriculture Department employees in the field are working against the administration's farm policies and seeking to undermine both President Eisenhower and himself.

This situation, Benson told a news conference, soon will lead the department to make a "careful study" of the whole field set up in the interest of gaining "maximum efficiency and loyalty."

Benson said he does not expect "100 per cent conformity" with administration policies but he does expect employees to help carry out his programs.

In reply to a question, the secretary said that no "political hacks" will be appointed to department jobs.

"The President and I see eye to eye on that," he said. "We will take no one unless he is fully qualified."

Discussing recent changes in top personnel in his department, Benson said there had been no "rift" over farm policies. He said, however, there had been some differences of views over details.

He also said there was no truth to published reports that Republican leaders had demanded that he fire Democrats who were holdovers from the Truman administration.

However, Benson acknowledged "there have been some expressions of dissatisfaction from party leaders and from some members of Congress over personnel."

"Some of these leaders said they felt that we had depended too heavily on holdover Democrats," he said.

At the Capitol, Sen. Watkins (R-Utah) said Benson had "given the Republican party a lift" by recent changes in top-level personnel.

Watkins gave his opinion in an interview as both Republicans and Democrats caught the register. He said a barrage of GOP Lincoln Day oratory and counterattacks. Some of the counterattacks Democrats renewed criticism of the administration flexible farm price support proposals.

Two French Officers Take 2 1/2-Mile Sea Dive

PARIS (AP)—Two French naval officers rode a diving bell 13,228 feet below the surface of the Atlantic Ocean off Dakar on the west coast of Africa today, deeper than man has ever gone before.

The plunge, 2 1/2 miles into the ocean's blackness, passed the depth record set last Sept. 30 by Prof. Auguste Piccard and his son, Jacques, who dived in a bathyscaphe to 10,339 feet in the Tyrrhenian sea off the island of Ponza, Italy.

Mrs. W. J. Brill

Mrs. W. J. Brill Dies Sunday At Her Home

Heart Attack Fatal
To One of Owners
Of Democrat-Capital

Mrs. Emma Irene Marsden Brill, 74, of 316 East Tenth, widow of the late Walter J. Brill, who was advertising manager of the Democrat and Capital for a long term of years preceding his death April 26, 1937, died at her home Sunday at 6:45 a. m.

Mrs. Brill, who had been in failing health the past few years, suffered a dislocation of an arm at the shoulder in a fall at her home several weeks ago, from which she was recovering. She was permitted to leave the Bothwell Hospital for her home just a week preceding her death.

Mrs. Brill was exceptionally well known, being active in church and various women's organizations. For a considerable time she had been unable to attend meetings, owing to her inability to get about as she had always done. But she kept in close touch with all of them through friends and the newspapers, Democrat and Capital, in which she was a stockholder. She was also a member of the board of directors of the Democrat Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Brill were married in Clinton, Mo., on June 29, 1899, and immediately returned to Sedalia to make their home. At that time Mr. Brill was connected with the old Sedalia Sentinel. They purchased their home at 316 East Tenth and resided there their entire married life.

Mrs. Brill was born at Gettysburg, Pa., Feb. 16, 1880, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Marsden. She came to Sedalia with her parents when a child and spent the remainder of her life here.

Among organizations to which she belonged were: Calvary Episcopal Church; Sedalia Chapter No. 57, Order of Eastern Star; Ladies Auxiliary to Sedalia Lodge No. 125, BPO Elks; Garden Circle No. 4, in which she was unusually active many years; Women's Benefit Association and the Ladies Auxiliary of the Calvary Episcopal Church.

Surviving are: two sons, Glenn M. Brill, conducting the Brill Advertising Agency, Denver, Colo., who arrived Monday, and Lawrence A. Brill, head of the Larry A. Brill Advertising Agency, Walnutwood Bldg., Kansas City. Lawrence spent Saturday with his mother here and at that time she apparently was feeling better than at any time since returning to her home. He returned to Kansas City that evening and again came to Sedalia Sunday morning, accompanied by his wife.

Two grandchildren, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn M. Brill, Bridget, student at Wellesley College, Wellesley, Mass., and Barbara, taking a course at Nancy Newcomb School, New Orleans, La., and a sister, Mrs. R. F. Traeger, 5922 Alhambra Street, Fairway, Kan., also survive.

Funeral services will be held on the anniversary of her birth, Tuesday at 3 p. m. at the Calvary Episcopal Church, the Rev. Edward R. Sims to officiate.

Mrs. James Atkinson will play organ music, "Ave Maria," "Going Home" and "Now the Day is Over."

Palbearers will be Elliott Steele, Kenneth O. Love, Henry Salvator, Walter Kennedy, Malachi O'Brien and Clarence Carter.

The body is at the McLaughlin Funeral Chapel to remain until time for the services.

Burial will be in Crown Hill Cemetery.

Dulles Will Give GOP, Demo Leaders Private Report on Conference

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles will give Republican and Democratic congressional leaders a private, detailed report on the Big Four foreign ministers conference soon after his return from Berlin.

This was disclosed today by Sen. Knowland (R-Calif.) after he and other GOP legislative leaders held their regular weekly conference with President Eisenhower.

Dulles plans to leave Berlin Friday at the conclusion of the conference. Knowland did not say when the briefing session would be held.

Promises Alliances Support

France's Bidault,
Britain's Eden Join
In Informing Russia
Of Continuing Unity

BERLIN (AP)—France's Foreign Minister Georges Bidault told the Russians today the nations of Western Europe will stick to the alliances they have made with the United States.

And Britain's Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden declared the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) is here to stay.

Thus the two European representatives of the Big Four foreign ministers conference, now in its dying stages, served notice on Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov that he is up against a solid front and divide-and-conquer tactics will not work.

The stand was taken this afternoon in a concerted Western attack on Molotov's proposal for a European security organization that would exclude the United States and in effect doom

Membership Drive Begins By C. of C.

It is so easy to say what should be done and there are plenty of people in Sedalia and Pettis County who have some mighty fine ideas, but there is always the little problem of who should do the job.

Too many people think that job belongs to somebody else, thinks Mrs. Anna Bagby, chairman of the membership committee of the Chamber of Commerce. It never dawned on them the amount of money and the amount of work that must be done on Chamber of Commerce projects, nor do they realize the progress, the achievements and the benefits that they receive from those who get in there and work.

"But," said Mrs. Bagby, membership and finance director of the C. of C., when he saw that Mrs. Bagby was chairman of one of his committees, "she is chairman of another committee. Not that I don't want her on this one. She is tops. But she has another committee and her own business, and it just isn't fair."

"One man is on five committees," said Chester A. Brown, executive manager of the Chamber of Commerce, "and there are lots of people on two, three or four."

"I know," argued Miller, "but it isn't fair—there are people who will do the job. You can depend on them," said Brown. "The jobs have to be done and you just have to find the people who will do them."

Sure, there are jobs to do and it takes money to do them. That is why the membership committee is so vastly important to all of the other committees. It takes the cooperation of everybody to make the town go forward. Maybe a small group can do all the work. But they can't give all the money to finance these things that people think should be done.

"I would think you would invest $30 in their town," said Mrs. Bagby. "After all, what is good for the town is good for anybody's business and it is good for the farmers, too."

"Some of them would rather ride on the coattails of others," said Miller, "they accept the benefits, all right, but they don't want to do anything about it."

"There are not many people who just don't realize that it is being done by the Chamber of Commerce," said Mr. Brown. "If they would just come down and get in it once, just to find out what we are doing. Recently there have been two new businessmen in town and both of them said as soon as they got here the first thing they wanted to do was become a member of the Chamber of Commerce. They realized what such an organization meant to them."

"It is an insurance on their business," said Miller. "And not only the business people benefit, but everybody does. There isn't a person who isn't helped by the Chamber of Commerce. It is at the heart of every service and every work for the betterment of the community. That is the job of the Chamber of Commerce."

On the membership committee are George Routsong, Ralph Salmons, Harry Naege, Jack Cunningham, Del Hecker, Abe Silverman, Joe Ruddick, John Zander, Clinton Muller, Claude L. Boul, Mrs. Ike L. Warren, Mrs. A. Brown, Mrs. Frank Wagner, Mrs. Kathryn Rosencrans, Dan Jones and George Dugan Sr., and they are ready to start a membership drive. When they try to sell a membership in the Sedalia Chamber of Commerce they believe in what they have to sell. They believe because they know what the Chamber of Commerce means to them. All of them put a lot into it. But they feel they get much more out of it.

Anyone who is interested in becoming a member and has not yet been approached by any member of the committee may contact one of the above, or any of the Chamber of Commerce directors: Maurice Dugan Sr., W. A. Smith, Maurice F. Hogan, Del Hecker, Bob Johnson, Merle Vaughan, Elmer Adams, Miss Eva Evans, John Pelham, Bob Cain, Kenzie Miller and Jack Shoemaker.

"The selling of memberships," said Miller, "belongs to every other division as well as the membership committee. It means the success of all of the committees. The success of the program of work."

The goal of the membership committee is at least 100 new members, and an increase of 100 memberships, totaling 200.

There have been ten new members since Nov. 1, and there have been several business places which increased the memberships already had. Two businesses increased by one membership and one by a half membership.

Memberships are getting easier to sell in the Chamber of Commerce, thinks Mrs. Bagby, who is director of that division for the second year. People are beginning to see what the Chamber of Commerce really means to them. New industries mean more jobs, more money for the businessman. The Sedalia Air Force Base was the result of lots of work on the part of the Chamber of Commerce. The solicitation committee has saved everybody money. There are so many things that the Chamber of Commerce instigates that the people who are already sold on the Chamber of Commerce tell each other why they think it is something everybody needs.

Now they plan to go out and do their selling to prospective members.

OBITUARIES

James A. Hageman

James A. Hageman, 66, of 125 East Booneville, died at the home of his son, Harley Bill Hageman, 1320 South Arlington, at 8:30 p.m. Sunday, a few minutes after he suffered a heart attack.

Mr. Hageman was born at Dodge City, Kan., Sept. 3, 1887, son of the late A. J. and Ella Hageman. He lived at Dodge City until 1904 when he came to Sedalia to reside. With the exception of five years that he lived in California, he has lived continuously in Sedalia. He was employed for a number of years at the Cash Hardware store and of recent years has been in the shoe repair business.

He was married at Sedalia, Oct. 26, 1920, to Miss Edna Lee Jones. They were the parents of 11 children. One daughter, Dorothy Jean, died in infancy.

He is survived by: his wife, Mrs. Edna Hageman; five sons, James Hageman Jr., Sedalia, Harley Bill Hageman, Sedalia, Pfc. Jess Hageman, Ft. The fire companies, at 2:52 p. m. Sunday, were called to Wilkerson, where a 1953 Buick sedan had caught fire when a carburetor overflowed. Damage of about $25 resulted. The car is owned by J. H. Deeds of Minnesota.

At 3:27 p. m. the companies were called to 1608 West 10th, residence of S. C. Dugan, where some trash was burning and spread to dry grass. No damage resulted.

Police Reports
Leo A. Mosier, 1412 South Quincy, reported to the police his Chevrolet sedan was missing from its parking place at the Tullis Hall.

The boy was taken to the police station and later released to Cecil Glenn, juvenile officer.

Mrs. Louis Huffman, 517 South Hancock, reported to the police that a hit and run driver hit her car while it was parked in front of her home sometime after midnight Sunday. The left front bumper and fender were damaged on the car.

William R. Henderson, 315 East Cooper, charged with assault and disturbing the peace, Judge Gloria, pleaded guilty to Judge Weinreich and was fined $25.

Six overtime parking bonds of $1 each were ordered forfeited.

Forged checks for $10 each cost one man two years in a reformatory and another three years in the state penitentiary Monday.

James E. Paxton, 22, pleaded guilty to a charge of forging a check for $10 on July 29. It was drawn on the Farmers and Merchants Bank of Green Ridge and signed "Olen Downs." It was charged Paxton issued it to the Jerry Brown Oil Co. on Highway 63, north of Sedalia, for cash and goods.

The case was complicated by the fact that Paxton, drafted into the army on July 14 of last year, went AWOL and returned to Sedalia about ten days later. After his arrest for the forgery, he was released on $1,000 bond and then disappeared. Last month he was located in Laramie, Wyo., and brought back to Sedalia by Sheriff John Taylor.

Upon the recommendation of Prosecuting Attorney Harold W. Barrick, Paxton was sentenced to two years at the reformatory for a communication from the adjutant to the commanding general at Ft. Riley, Kan., where Paxton was sent when drafted, asking the disposition of the case. Barrick added that the communication contained no hint of what the Army would do about Paxton upon his release from Alcoa Farms.

Stanley A. Gehlken pleaded guilty Monday morning to charge of forging a $10 check on Nov. 27 of last year and issuing it to the Shell Service Station at Main and Missouri. He was sentenced to three years in the state penitentiary, upon the recommendation of Prosecutor Barrick.

The check was drawn on the Third National Bank and signed "F. A. Rogers." Barrick explained that Gehlken had been working at the time for Floyd Rogers.

Reds Lead Group Of Reporters Through Germany

BERLIN (U-P) — The Communists took a group of Western correspondents sightseeing in East Germany yesterday but eagle-eyed them strictly as if they'd been Sunday schoolers at a burlesque house.

It was a short trip, too—just 17 miles from Berlin to Potsdam, residence of Prussian kings and German emperors and site of the 1945 Big Three conference.

Two carloads of East German plainclothesmen joined the three busloads of Western and Far Eastern correspondents at the East zone border and dogged their heels throughout the day.

Under the management of East German press officials, the tour went off without a hitch but the newsmen were depressed and harassed by the close supervision and the open suspicion they might get loose to see something embarrassing to the Reds.

Every time a correspondent stopped to look at a picture or book in the palaces or scribbled a note, one of the Red plainclothesmen trotted to his elbow.

One newsmen who turned his camera on three of the operatives precipitated a fine show as each tried to get behind another.

The tour conductors kept the newsmen in a tight little line. The only time anyone got away briefly, they learned only that one pedestrian would be mightily glad if the border barriers were lowered so shoes and clothing on the Russian side might be better.

After the closing song and the invocation, the group went to the basement for an evening of fun and refreshments.

The next meeting is to be March

Bertha Cox Circle Studies Aid to Negroes

The Bertha Cox circle of the Fifth Street Methodist Church met at the home of Mrs. Harry Burford Wednesday, Feb. 10 at 8 p. m.
Mrs. Russel Ulmer presided.

The program for the evening was led by Mrs. June Harmon and carried out the theme of the month
"The Master Calls Us to Service."
Miss Margaret Johnson gave a very interesting talk on "The Methodist Church Helping Rural Negroes." The problem is world wide, as more and more Negroes move into cities and suburban areas, the rural churches are left to ruin, the population not being large enough to care for and support the small congregations left.

February is World Brotherhood Month, and this was stressed throughout the meeting. The special feature of the evening was a review of the article "Pastor of Troubled Souls."

Refreshments were served by the hostess and assistants, Mrs.
Bonnie Smith and Mrs. Margaret Bartlett. The Valentine theme was carried out in decorations and the refreshments.

About Town

George and Walter Bartley of Milan, who have been visiting their sister, Mrs. Henry Shaver, 1414 East Third, returned home Sunday.

Duane Gene Stevens, 6 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Stevens, route 2, Sedalia, is ill at home with lobar pneumonia.
He is in the first grade at Striped College School.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Cramer and daughter, Shirley Ann, Brookfield, were weekend guests of their parents and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Cramer, Sedalia, and Mr. and Mrs. James M. Williams, Smithton.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy R. Vilmer, 1012 East Tenth, had as weekend guests, Miss Aubrey Fischer, St.
Louis, and their son, Bob Vilmer,
Webster Groves.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Weller, route
2, Green Ridge, had as guests
Wednesday their son Elmer Weller and daughter, Anne, Gashland, and their daughter, Mrs. Leo Brown, Sedalia. Over the weekend their guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Homer Willard, Peairie Village, Kan., and their son, George Weller, and children, Kathy and Walter Towanada.

Mrs. Henry Smith Is Oak Point Hostess

Mrs. Henry Smith, Houstonia, was hostess to the all day meeting of the Oak Point Club at her home Feb. 11. The business meeting was conducted with 12 members present. Roll call was a picture display. Mrs. Tommy Curtis was devotional leader reading from Math. 13.

After lunch there was a Valentine exchange. It was decided that Oak Point Club will prepare and present a play at the county play festival in March. Mrs. T. C. Shepherd volunteered to take the garments made by the club members to Mercy Hospital in Kansas City.

Mrs. Otto Tegmeyer and Mrs.
Donald Arnett led in playing games. The club adjourned with a prayer by Mrs. Ralph Minor. The next meeting will be with Mrs.
Raymond Crosswhite, March 11.

Busy Stitchers Club Has Valentine Party

A Valentine party and a contributed dinner was the feature of the meeting held Feb. 11 by the Busy Stitchers Club at the home of Mrs. Willie Anderson.

Eight members and seven visitors answered roll call with a household hint.

Mrs. Homer Baugh gave a very interesting talk on what to do and what to say when visiting the sick.

The club took up a free will offering with proceeds going to the Children's Mercy Hospital in Kansas City.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Furman Barton.

Valentine's Day Visitors Cheer Hearts at Buena Vista

Anyone who thinks Valentines Day is just for young people is mistaken, the people at the Buena Vista Home know better. It was a wonderful time for them, Saturday through Sunday.

It started Saturday afternoon
when they were given a surprise Valentine party arranged by the
C. A. girls of Hughesville, Miss.
Pauline Chamberlain in charge.
The girls planned the entire program. They had a beautiful Valentine box filled with Valentines, about three Valentines for everyone at the home. There were favors, too, with heart candy, homemade Valentine cookies and fruit punch. The girls talked to the different ones at the home and sang songs for them.

Demonstration Given On Cooper Tooling For Smithton Club

A demonstration of copper tool-ing was given by Mrs. Sheldon
Smith and Mrs. Fred Lovercamp at the Smithton Friendly Homemakers Club regular meeting held Feb. 12 at the home of Mrs. Raymond Kahrs. Several of the members are ordering material and are going to learn to make flower planters and book ends under the supervision of Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Lovercamp.

During the business meeting, the 12 members present voted to have dues of five cents per month for the coming year.

Cub Pack Has Blue And Gold Dinner

The annual blue and gold dinner was celebrated by Cub Pack
No. 53 Friday night, Feb. 12, at the Jefferson School.

Invited guests included: C. A.
Phillips, organization chairman and Mrs. Phillips; Norman Bottcher, district commissioner, and Mrs. Bottcher; V. A. Siegel, Scoutmaster of Troop 53, and Mrs.
Siegel, president of Jefferson PTA, which sponsors the pack.

Place cards and table decorations added color and background for the dinner. White tables filled with handicraft and projects of the boys held the place of interest of parents and cubs alike.

After a game session that gave fun and relaxation to everyone,
Mr. Phillips presented the awards to the boys: Bear badge, Jerry Palmer; Lion badge, Richard Middleton, Ronald Whitehead, Michael Napier and Gary Ellis; gold arrow points, Clark Ellis, Richard Middleton, Ronald Whitehead, Michael Napier, Ronald Head, and Jerry Palmer; silver arrow points, Ronald Whitehead.

New officers for the coming year were installed. They are:
James Hall, cubmaster; Carl Ellis, assistant cubmaster; Melton
Thomas, committee chairman;
Francis Wallace, treasurer; Richard Middleton, Charles Robb and Dell Napier, committeemen; Mrs.
Melton Thomas, Mrs. Richard
Buso, Mrs. Dell Napier and Mrs.
Frances Wallace, den mothers.

Sunday morning about 11 o'clock the Girl Scout Troop No.
24, St. Patrick's School, led by Mrs. Herbert Berlin and Mrs. Paul Weinholt, went to the home with a large box of candy, Valentine cookies and beautifully wrapped Valentine gifts. For the women there were sachets and Valentines and for the men Valentines and cigars.

In the afternoon the regular services were held at the chapel by the Rev. David M. Bryan, pastor of the First Christian Church.
He brought with him members of the young people's department of the church who presented a nice program.

After that the junior choir and some of the members of the Russellville Methodist Church of which the Rev. R. H. Hood is pastor, came, they presented a delightful musical program and brought with them a gift of fruit for the people at the home.

And how did a group as far away as Russellville happen to come to Buena Vista to put on a program? One of the women at the home, Mrs. Elizabeth Shepherd, is a member of that church, and the young minister told her that one of these days they would come to see her and put on a program at the home. They chose Valentine's Day to come.

"People say the young people of today don't care anything about old people," said Mrs. M. E.
Greene, superintendent of the home. "But I know better. The young people come out here all the time, talk to those who live in the home, put on programs and do so many nice things. They do care and it means so much."

Sunday Service Centers On Boy Scout Program At First Methodist

Sunday was Boy Scout day at the First Methodist Church with the entire church service centering around the Scouts. The outstanding part of the program was the presentation of a wristwatch to Harvey Lambirth from the church in commemoration of his 15 years of work with the troop.

Mr. Lambirth has served faithfully and has done a wonderful work in Scouting, it was pointed out. He is retiring from the troop.
Those who had attained Eagle Scout rank under Mr. Lambirth, now young men, were called to the front and presented as were the boys of the troop.

The sermon by the pastor, the Rev. Roy L. Bowers, was also on Scouting.

Bridge Tournament At Country Club

A bridge tournament will be held at the Country Club beginning Thursday. Any member desiring to enter the tournament must call Mrs. J. C. McLaughlin,

It's Possible For a Russian To Own a Car

MOSCOW (P)—Even though most autos in the Soviet Union still are state-owned and operated, it's possible for a man to own his own car.

But if he's in a position to own a car, he has to wait six months or more to get one. Then he can't get license plates until he manages to scrape together the materials to build a garage or even more difficult, rent one already built. And he can't get the lumber to build a garage without official government permission, and that means miles of bureaucratic red tape.

If he somehow comes through all this, he has to pass a course in auto repairs and be able to discuss the workings of an engine to get a driver's license.

Some Soviet drivers actually make it. At last they're able to throw the family in the back seat and take a spin around the Kremlin. But if he runs out of gas, or his car breaks down, he'll find only second-grade fuels available to him as a private motorist and servicing of the lowest order.

The government lately has taken notice of this state of affairs. The official weekly Krokodil (Crocodile) says the government decided that the garages in the residential areas will be turned over to private car owners, is ignored. It urged that it be enforced. As it is, the publication says, these garages still are being monopolized by cars belonging to government officials.

"It is nearly impossible," the paper goes on, "to convince officials in district executive committees that an automobile no longer is a luxury in the Soviet Union."

An owner can't expect his car to last very long with the service available to him. Krokodil complains. It concludes:

"Many service stations work on one rule—give the least to the car and take the most from its owner."

MoPac Shop Notes—

Fred Welling Retires After 30 Years Service With MP

Fred Welling, machinist, has retired from service with the Missouri Pacific. Mr. Welling began working at the Missouri Pacific shops in June, 1923, and had worked there since. He was for many years lead man on the night shift. Mr. Welling has always taken an active part in shop affairs, being an officer in the machinists' organization and also taking part in booster activities. Mr. and Mrs. Welling will continue to reside on their farm near Sedalia.

J. H. McQuiddy, former general machine shop foreman at the Missouri Pacific shops and now retired and living in Chicago, Ill., was a visitor at the shops the past week, renewing acquaintances.

F. G. Knerl, general chairman for the supervisors, was a business visitor in St. Louis last week.

George Ray, draftsman for the Missouri Pacific in DeSoto, spent the weekend visiting in Sedalia.

Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Smith and Mrs. Walter Smith were business visitors in Kansas City last week.

Mr. Smith is a retired machinist. Mr. William Donath, general chairman for the machinists with headquarters in St. Louis, was a business visitor in Sedalia the past week.

William Sugg, mechanical superintendent for the Missouri Pacific with headquarters in Kansas City, was a business visitor at the shops the past week.

Ray Maxwell, of the publicity department of the Missouri Pacific with headquarters in St. Louis, was a business visitor in Sedalia the past week, visiting with Jack Lobaugh, chief booster, and Mrs. Jerome Wolfe, president of the Missouri Pacific Women's Club, regarding booster activities.

Charles Lawson, coach carpenter apprentice who has been serving with the Marines and who returned home after being discharged from service, will resume his duties at the shops in a few days.

Fred Staley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Staley, has been discharged from the Marines and returned home. Mr. Staley is a welder in the reclaim plant.

K. V. Larsen, vice chairman for the machinists, was in St. Louis the past week, attending a meeting of the system board, of which he is a member.

J. L. Hiltner, painter, who is a patient in the Missouri Pacific Hospital, is getting along nicely, according to word received from the hospital.

V. C. Richardson, crane operator at the shops, will leave Monday for St. Louis to enter the Missouri Pacific Hospital for medical attention.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Chalmers and children, Portland, Ore., have returned home after spending a few days visiting relatives and friends in Sedalia. Mr. Chalmers was a former Missouri Pacific shopman.

Charles Walker, traffic representative for the Illinois Central with headquarters in St. Louis, was a business visitor in Sedalia the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Newman and children, Springfield, are spending a few days visiting relatives and friends in Sedalia. Mr. Newman is a machinist for the Frisco.

Women Doctors Marry Less But Longer

BRYN MAWR, Pa. (P)—A Bryn Mawr College report shows fewer women Ph.D.'s get married than their less educated neighbors but when they do they stay married a lot longer.

Dr. Eleanor A. Bliss, dean of the graduate school, said 85 per cent of the college's Ph.D.'s are still single working girls. "But the divorce rate is very low—far below the national average," Dr. Bliss said.

Academy Picks Top Films, Stars Tonight

HOLLYWOOD (P)—The Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences tonight will announce the nominations for this year's Academy Awards.

Such pictures as "Shane," "From Here to Eternity," and "Roman Holiday" are expected to get many preliminary honors.

Among the performers, Burt Lancaster as the tough sergeant of "Eternity" is considered a favorite, while newcomer Audrey Hepburn of "Roman Holiday" is a leading contender among actresses.

Practically sure to be nominated for best director are George Stevens for "Shane" and Fred Zinneman for "Eternity."

Prairie Ridge Club Plays Outdoor Games

The Prairie Ridge 4-H Club met Feb. 11 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Tuckwiller with 17 members and one visitor present.

Florence Norfleet, vice-president, presided. It was voted to buy a gift for Mr. and Mrs. Perry and new daughter. Project books were given to members.

Refreshments were served and outdoor games were played.

The next meeting will be March 4 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Hayes.

Suggests Housewives Prepare Food Cache

FORT WORTH, Tex. (P)—Advice to housewives: gather up a few cans of preserved food and a gallon jar of water and stick it in a safe place.

It may help your family survive atomic attack or other disaster, says the nation's top woman civil defense official.

Mrs. Katherine Howard, deputy national director of the Federal Civil Defense Administration, said in a transcribed Texas radio broadcast yesterday a three-day supply of canned food and water should be kept in every household as minimum emergency rations.

Underground Pentagon Now Ready to Use

WASHINGTON (P)—The high command's atom-age "underground Pentagon," built inside a mountain 65 miles from the national capital, is ready.

A Defense Department spokesman said today in reply to a reporter's question that the project, which started three years ago to provide an alternate command post and communications center if atomic attack should threaten or destroy the Pentagon, is "100 per cent completed."

The cost of blasting out the cavern under Rock Raven Mountain, in Frederick County, Md., building housing for personnel above ground and installing communications equipment, presumably reached at least the original estimate of 35 million dollars.

Available information indicates a maintenance force of military personnel now is at what the Defense Department calls its "joint supplemental communications facility."

Jurisdiction of the facility, which includes the former National Guard training site of Ft. Ritchie as well as the mammoth cavern five miles from the fort, is under the Defense Department. Its use in wartime would be by all three services—Army, Navy and Air Force—for central direction of defense and counterattack even though headquarters at Washington might be wiped out. The Pentagon itself is a peculiarly vulnerable target for air attack, easily identifiable from the air by radar because of its stone-steel construction and unique shape and its location near the Potomac River.

The underground Pentagon was financed through Army, Navy and Air Force funds, specifically approved after congressional committees had heard testimony in private session, the spokesman said.

Construction was under direction of the Army's Corps of Engineers. Although the spokesman said that the project now is 100 per cent complete, no details were given to show whether this also included completion of connected projects—such as the construction of a radio transmitter station at Greencastle, Pa., and a receiver station at Sharpsburg, Md., and the laying of underground cables to provide telephone and telegraph connection with transcontinental trunk line cables which cross the Allegheny Mountain ridge some miles from the site. Ft. Ritchie is located almost on the Maryland-Pennsylvania border.

The emergency command post is linked to the normal communications facilities of the Army, Navy and Air Force by five microwave radio stations built in or near Washington.

Actual construction started Jan. 1, 1951, although plans had been considered soon after the end of World War II.

Contractors specializing in hard rock tunneling bored and blasted and carted away 500,000 cubic yards of material.

A tunnel, curving to reduce blast pressure from an atomic explosion outside, is about 25 feet across, with a vaulted roof of about equal height.

Deep in the interior of the mountain where presumably even a direct hit by an atomic bomb could not penetrate, is the main chamber, about 35 feet high. Three floor levels were designed for this heart of the command post.

Marked Increase In Deaths On Area Roads In January

Sedalia's eight county area has shown a definite increase in traffic accidents, fatalities, injuries and property damage for the month of January compared with the same month in 1953. These reports are compiled from records of Capt. O. L. Viets of Troop A, Lee's Summit, and Capt. C. Maurice Parker of Troop F, Jefferson City, of the State Highway Patrol.

Killed in January were five times as many as the corresponding month, there being five killed to only one in 1953. Property damage was $29,216 greater. In January property damage totaled $68,866, compared with $41,650 in 1953. There were also seven more persons injured, 67 being hurt this year compared with 60 in 1953.

It is noted that Lafayette County had the largest increase in property damage, $8,143, while Pettis was a close second with an increase of $7,851. But, percentage-wise, Morgan was the county with the greatest increase. Ten times over 1953, when it was $450, with this year's $4,990.

Lafayette County led in deaths with three killed against none last year in January.

Morgan had the biggest increase in accidents, 12 against 1, while Johnson decreased to five, against 19 in '53, and Cooper had four against eight in '53.

With injured, Morgan had eight against none last year while Pettis County had 14 against five. Johnson decreased to four against 12 in '53.

The record for the eight counties is as follows:

BENTON—Accidents 6, Killed 0, Injured 0, Property Damage $2,400

HENRY—Accidents 8, Killed 0, Injured 0, Property Damage $8,025

JOHNSON—Accidents 5, Killed 0, Injured 0, Property Damage $3,525

LAFAYETTE—Accidents 24, Killed 3, Injured 15, Property Damage $18,990

PETTIS—Accidents 10, Killed 0, Injured 0, Property Damage $12,841

SALINE—Accidents 12, Killed 1, Injured 14, Property Damage $11,595

COOPER—Accidents 4, Killed 0, Injured 0, Property Damage $6,300

MORGAN—Accidents 12, Killed 1, Injured 8, Property Damage $4,990

Youth Pulls Trigger One Time Too Many

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (P)—Patrolman Al Borque told this story of Claude M. Nash, 19, who pressed the trigger three times yesterday:

The first time nothing happened. The second time nothing happened. Companions shouted "Don't do it again."

The third time the .25-caliber pistol fired a bullet into his body and he died in a few minutes.

Borque said he did not believe Nash knew the pistol was loaded.

Colorado, KU Neck and Neck In Big 7 Race

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Colorado, which wasn't expected to budge out of the cellar, and Kansas, a strong championship favorite, head down the home stretch in the Big Seven basketball race in a dead heat.

Coach Phog Allen's Kansas Jayhawks pulled even with Coach Bebe Lee's Colorado Buffaloes at 6-1 last Saturday by walloping the visiting Nebraska Cornhuskers, 79-68, at Lawrence. Colorado didn't play that night.

The co-leaders each play twice this week. Colorado takes on Iowa State at Boulder tonight and Nebraska on the same familiar board Saturday. Kansas has Kansas State at home Wednesday and Iowa State in Ames Saturday.

Colorado has beaten every team in the league except Kansas State at least once. Kansas has whipped all of them except Colorado which took the Jayhawks 70-62 at Boulder Feb. 2.

Six conference games are on the week's schedule and everybody plays. Nebraska, which has lost its last three conference games after starting with four victories, plays Oklahoma at Norman tonight. And Oklahoma and Missouri meet in Columbia Saturday.

While Iowa State was taking care of Kansas State, 64-62, for the second time this season, Oklahoma and Missouri were winning impressive non-conference victories last Saturday.

The Oklahoma Sooners, who are experiencing one of the worst seasons in many years, upset Oklahoma A&M, the nation's No. 4 team, 63-60, in Coach Hank Iba's own gym at Stillwater.

Missouri swamped Houston 96-62 at Columbia. The victors set a new team record, beating their old mark of 85 points against Kansas—a game they lost—last year. Center Bob Reiter tied his own Missouri individual scoring record of 33 points.

Iowa State trailed by nine points at the three-quarter mark and was behind 13 points at one time before trimming Kansas State as Barney Allenman dunked two free throws in the last four seconds.

Kansas' sophomore guard Dallas Dobbs scored 22 points and Al Kelley hit for 20 to make it a comparatively easy task for Kansas. The Buffaloes held the Jayhawks great B. H. Born to one field goal and eight free throws.

Sports Roundup—Cannot Criticize Landy When He Failed to Crack 4 Minutes

NEW YORK (AP)—It is a good less than fair to criticize John Landy, the superb Australian distance runner, because some sort of alibi always comes winging across the Pacific every time he fails to run a mile in four minutes.

The alibi seldom comes from Landy himself. The trouble is that the Australian people, especially the avid track fans, are so terribly anxious that one of their own should win the distinction of cracking the historic four-minute barrier that their disappointment shows through each time Landy misses.

In his latest try at Sydney the Aussie star was clocked in 4:05.5. He was running on grass, which is conceded by track authorities to be somewhat slower than specially prepared surfaces. Only a few years ago the time he set would have been a new world record. It was, in other words, an outstanding effort in every respect.

Yet it was marred for American enthusiasts by the dispatches which moaned from the start that Landy had been forced to make his run against a "head" wind, and which quoted the opinion of an Australian track official that this unusual wind added "six to seven seconds" to the runner's time. Let's face it, this was being slightly ridiculous.

There is no questioning that such a dry, hot wind as blows in Australia at this time of the year is a handicap to a mile. We watched Landy run under such conditions at Melbourne last year, and it was obvious that the necessity of bucking the wind in the final sprint for the tape, when he was tired, cost him some yards.

But as it also was obvious that the track was oval shaped, and that Landy must have had the same dust-laden breeze at his back a good part of the time, no one suggested that he had been robbed by a head wind. It was only noted that conditions were poor and that Landy's time undoubtedly suffered.

That, we believe, is what the public would have preferred to read this time. It is no disgrace not to have run a four-minute mile—not yet, anyway—and those who insist upon providing alibis for such a great athlete as Landy are only doing him a disservice. We were pained to see him described as "the man who always seems to have an alibi."

That revision cancels the much criticized "one-one" rule which awards a player a second free throw attempt if he misses his first. It also boots out the "three-minute" rule which awards two free throws for any foul committed in the last 180 seconds of a game.

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The Springfield Bears still have a chance to win the M.I.A.A. basketball pennant for the third straight year and five times in the last six seasons.

Kirkville completed its league schedule with a 7-3 record after beating Maryville 69-66 Saturday. Springfield dumped Cape Girardeau 68-56 at Springfield for a 5-2 record that edged the Bears into first place.

Springfield has three games remaining. The Bears play Rolla Tuesday and Warrensburg Saturday, both at home, this week. They wind up with Rolla at Rolla Feb. 23. If they win all three they will tie them with Kirkville.

Cape Girardeau (5-3) also has two games remaining and by winning both—Warrensburg at Warrensburg tonight and Maryville at Cape Friday—would tie Kirkville.

There's also the possibility of a three-way tie for the crown involving Springfield, Kirkville and Cape Girardeau.

Maryville (3-5) and Rolla, which has lost all seven of its league games, will play at Rolla Saturday. In non-conference competition, Maryville goes to Quincy, Ill., College Tuesday.

Art Helms and Charles Peterson each scored 15 points for Springfield against Cape. Willard Smith scored 19 points as Kirkville beat Maryville in a roughly played game. Wes Sanders of Kirkville and Daryl Flint of Maryville both were ejected in the last quarter for rough play.

M. I. A. A. Standings:

Springfield	Won	Lost	Pct.
Springfield	5	3	.714
Kirkville	5	3	.700
Cape Girardeau	5	3	.625
Warrensburg	4	4	.500

Eddie Hickey Wants Fouling Cut on Courts

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Little Eddie Hickey, long a student of the game, thinks it's high time he and his fellow coaches do something about excessive fouling in college basketball.

The veteran St. Louis University coach lays the problem right in the laps of the coaches, because, says Hickey, it's the coaches who have caused the problem.

"There's no doubt, charged Hickey, who is president of the National Association of College Basketball Coaches, 'but that present day defense borders strongly on intentional fouls to prevent the other team from gaining an advantage with the possibility of a field goal."

"The defense gives up one point (scored on a free throw awarded for a foul) for the chance of scoring two themselves (By gaining control of the ball after the free throw attempt)."

The intentional foul, however, is just one of the criticisms Hickey—and other coaches too—have against present-day basketball. In a quick rundown, Hickey also stands against the "one-one" free throw rule, the "three-minute" rule and the penalty forcing a player from the game when he commits his fifth personal foul.

Under a plan drafted by Hickey for submission to the coaches at their Kansas City convention next month all four "problems" are eliminated.

Hickey's revised penalty system would allow a player to remain in a game no matter how many personal fouls he collected. But the player's fourth and succeeding fouls would be termed "excessive" and would carry a stiff penalty.

An "excessive" foul in Hickey's book would permit the offended player as many as three free throws. At least he would receive two.

Hickey feels that under the five-fouls-and-out rule a star player sometimes holds an unfair advantage over lesser lights. With pregame buildup

AFL Teamsters Get Warning Of Hard Times

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—The AFL Teamsters Union opened a midwinter Executive Board meeting today with President Dave Beck sounding a "hard times" warning and questioning labor peace moves.

Beck, chief of the 1,300,000-member Teamsters Union, hit at Secretary of the Treasury George M. Humphrey's money policies and said they are responsible for the present unemployment situation.

"Our present economic situation can be traced right back to the 'hard money' policy launched by Humphrey nearly a year ago," Beck said. "This search for hard money has brought on hard times."

The Teamsters Union's International Executive Board was expected either to reject outright or throw so many conditions into accepting a proposed AFL-CIO "no raiding" agreement as to place its effectiveness in jeopardy.

AFL President George Meany, chief proponent of the AFL-CIO peace plan, left Miami Beach today ahead of the opening session of the teamsters board. Meany has been trying to persuade labor unions to agree to peaceful settlement of their rivalries.

Beck, who has called a score of lawyers to the teamsters board meeting, was expected to contend that the "no raid" pact is illegal under the Taft-Hartley Act. The agreement is designed to bar a union from one federation against trying to capture members already organized by a union in the other federation. The peace agreement would apply, however, only to unions specifically signing it. The teamsters, one of the largest unions in the country, could virtually torpedo the plan by a veto.

That Beck, who has considerable ambitions to swell teamsters membership, would refuse to go along with the plan was considered a foregone conclusion as the teamsters board meeting got under way. Some teamsters lawyers were prepared to argue that the AFL-CIO plan, by designating the areas in which each union could organize members, would deny workers the right to choose between the unions, or overthrow one union in favor of another.

This argument was seriously challenged by other attorneys familiar with the T-H law. They pointed out that the law recognizes exclusive jurisdiction of union organizing by specifying how jurisdictional disputes between rival unions may be settled.

Beck said the experiment launched by Treasury Secretary Humphrey shortly after President Eisenhower took office of issuing government bonds at higher interest rates had retarded credit, restricted business activity and spurred the present unemployment situation.

He said the auto industry was the hardest hit, being in "the worst position in 30 years." He said used car values had declined to the point where thousands of car owners are turning their autos back to finance companies for the balance due because they can buy the same type car off used car lots for less money.

Anyone, Beck told reporters, can walk into an automobile salesroom with cash and buy a new car at anywhere up to 30 per cent off list price—"and that's a damn serious situation."

In Detroit, Beck got no support from industry officials available for comment.

Elmer Rolley, vice president of Universal C I T Credit Corp., financing agency for the Ford Motor Co., said he knew of no finance companies in bad shape.

"We are not in any difficulty. Things are going along very nicely," he said of his own firm.

Harlow H. Curtice, president of General Motors, said, "I do not care to answer Mr. Beck." He added, however, that he felt his own recent optimistic statements still held good.

The car industry has been predicting a production year 5 or 5½ million vehicles in 1954. This would be the third best year in history.

Signal Lights Warn Of Boys' Misdemeanor

DETROIT (AP)—Two boys, 10 and 11, broke into a New York Central Railroad tool shanty here and hammered open a main-line switch.

But there wasn't any train wreck. The open switch set off a red warning at the signal tower. Railwaymen closed the switch. Police turned the boys over to their parents.

Vocational Agriculture Brings Profits to Green Ridge Pupils

Twenty Will Journey To Yellowstone Park During the Summer

Pictures and Story By Peter Potter

The relatively new vocational agriculture shop at Green Ridge High School has one of the most active classes in the system. Not only does it have a modern shop and equipment, but the work extends beyond the confines of the school building to the homes. And, as if this were not constant enough activity, the boys band together every summer for a trip to a camp on the Lake of the Ozarks.

This summer, however, some 20 members of the class will take Greeley's admonition and go west—to Yellowstone National Park. They will use a bus and a car for the trip and will camp out in the open all along the way, both coming and going.

The department is reported to be the oldest in the state, but the shop is only two years old. It cost $30,000 to erect, financed by a bond issue which was paid off in one year. Everything about it is up-to-date. The boys have the best in equipment, including an electrical welding outfit, all of it costing between $1,500 and $2,000.

There are 37 boys enrolled in the department. The school also conducts a class for between ten and 15 young adult ages 16 to 26, and another class for about ten veterans. The regular classes are taught by R. H. Denker, Cole Camp, while the veterans class is conducted by Robert Longan and Bill Alspaugh.

The students are encouraged to put their knowledge to immediate use and thereby earn money for the annual camping trips. For instance, each freshman is presented with a gilt with the understanding that the following year the student will return two gilts to the class.

The course is divided into four parts: the study course, home farm projects, shop and the Future Farmers of America. The instructor visits each boy in his home and works with him and his parents on problems relative to the boy's school and project program.

Farm projects offer an opportunity for the boy to put into use the approved practices he will learn in school. A chance to develop his initiative and managerial ability, teaches him thrift and many of the success essentials. They provide a way for financing future projects, help him pay high school expenses and ultimately they enable a boy to get an earlier and better start in farming.

A good project program in the senior year will include a project in each of the major farm enterprises in Pettis County. A boy's project program should grow as he advances through high school. The boy is encouraged to plan his project program so that each year he will be closer to his goal.

Shop work has been added to the vocational agriculture course as a means of teaching boys the care and use of tools and to enable them to acquire some skill in doing the construction or repair jobs that most adults will want to do. The advanced students work primarily on the care and operation of farm tractors and farm machinery. Boys find shop work both practical and profitable.

They make feeders, hog houses, wagon boxes, rope, iron work for their families or neighbors after they have made the equipment essential for their own projects. Boys frequently need encouragement from parents if they do well in this program.

The FFA organization is the part of the agriculture program especially designed to teach leadership. Practically all boys enrolled in vocational agriculture are members of the FFA. It is a national organization consisting of farm boys who stress scholarship, and knowledge of parliamentary procedure, home projects and leadership ability for advancement in the organization.

The trip to Yellowstone National Park will cost approximately $400, which the boys have earned themselves by dipping sheep and doing other farm chores. It will take from 10 to 12 days, including on-the-road time of about three or four days each way.

The group will include the senior and junior class and enough sophomores and freshmen to make a total of 20. They will be accompanied by their school superintendent, Wayne Haddleton, their instructor, Denker, and their coach, Donald Brown, who will be from parents. This is the first time such a trip has been undertaken since about 1942, when a former superintendent Raymond D. Hagan led a group of about 15 boys there.

They will be closer to his goal.

Death Takes Father Of One of Turncoats

HAWTHORNE, Calif. (AP)—Relatives have disclosed the death Friday of George J. Veneris, 63, whose son James is one of the 21 Korea prisoners who refuses to leave the Communists.

A daughter, Anastasia, said yesterday that Veneris "was broken-hearted after hospital attendants told him last month that Jimmy had chosen to stay with the Reds."

"We hadn't intended to let him know," she added, "But it leaked out."

Shortly before his death, said relatives, Veneris told them tearfully: "I wish I could see Jimmy once more."

Shoots at Burglar, Kills Wrong Man

HOUSTON (AP)—A bullet intended for a fleeing burglar killed a former high school principal yesterday.

Thomas Horace Rogers, 79, was driving his car. A policeman in a patrol car a block away fired at another car believed driven by a man who'd tried to break into an office.

The shot broke a window of Rogers' car and hit him in the head. His auto knocked down a row of parking meters before stopping in a parking lot.

The burglar suspect escaped.

35 Millions May Not Have To File Taxes

WASHINGTON (AP) — Revenue Commission T. Coleman Andrews thinks the government can relieve about 35 million taxpayers from filing any individual income tax return at all next year—though they would still pay the tax.

And he plans to double the number of revenue agents, now about 8,000, by adding 1,000 new agents a year to pick up 1½ to 2 billion dollars in taxes he says the government is now missing, and check what he called a growing tide of evasion.

Andrews outlined these and other far-reaching plans during closed hearings two weeks ago before a House Appropriations subcommittee on his agency's budget. A transcript of his testimony was released today.

The commissioner said "considerable progress" has been made on a long-talked plan under which no tax return would be required from persons whose entire income is subject to payroll withholding taxes.

Employers would file a single report, covering both income taxes and social security taxes. The government would compute the tax and send the taxpayer a bill or a refund.

That would leave only about 20 million of the nation's 55 million taxpayers still filing annual returns.

Andrews said the plan would save 35 million dollars a year through reduced paper work for the tax service, but add 10 million in costs to the social security administration.

He told the committee that 1955 is the target date for putting the plan into effect and "I think we can do it."

He said 1,500 new revenue agents can be added between now and June 30, 1955, without increasing appropriations, by using savings made in other fields.

Andrews said the tax service also has smacked up against an apparent increase in efforts to claim illegal dependents and deductions and get bigger tax refunds than justified. He noted that refunds have increased from 1½ billion dollars in 1950 to more than 2½ billion for 1953.

The commissioner estimated there are errors in 77 per cent of individual returns for business income of between $10,000 and $30,000; errors in 60 per cent of the returns on nonbusiness individual income between $10,000 and $50,000.

For income below $10,000 he said, a recent check covering only suspicious returns showed errors in 59 out of 100.

For corporation and top-level returns, he said, the average revenue agent completed 124 examinations during 1953 and found over $260,000 in unreported taxes—a total for the whole service of over one billion dollars.

Although the number of evaders still is small in comparison with the total of all tax returns, Andrews said, "this trend may be an indication that something serious is happening to our voluntary compliance system."

Exploration of Big, Vast Cave Begun by 2 Women and 4 Men

CRYSTAL CAVE, Ky. (AP)—The woman, attired in Army khaki fatigue suit and a miner's helmet with carbide lamp, was descending into the cave for a week's sojourn.

A newsman inquired: "Is there anything nicer you'd rather do?"

"Yes," replied Mrs. Ida V. Sawtelle, 47, of Brooklyn, N.Y. "I'd like to go down for two weeks."

Mrs. Sawtelle is typical of the 55 men and women engaged today in exploring Crystal Cave in the Mammoth Cave National Park area, 100 miles south of Louisville.

She bubbled with excitement last night as she accompanied another woman and four men on the first stage of the exploration, requiring nine hours of crawling and hiking.

They carried 250 pounds of personal effects and equipment, which must be dragged over the rock and dirt.

Mrs. Sawtelle's bundles included the following items: a map, first aid kit, can of carbide, notebook and pencil, can opener, emergency rations, whistle, knife, kneepads, waterproof match container, 12 pounds of rope and other rock-climbing equipment, foot powder, cleaning tissues, comb, hand cream, face lotion and lipstick.

"You know there are rats in the cave," someone asked.

Mrs. Sawtelle shrugged. "I've slept with rats running over my sleeping bag."

Mrs. Sawtelle, who earns her living training dogs, was accompanied by Marguerite Klein, 21, a schoolteacher from Chevy Chase, Md. Neither had spent more than a day in a cave.

Two other women preceded them underground as the National Speleological (cave study) Society launched the seven-day expedition. They were Nancy Rogers, 41, a bacteriologist of Arlington, Va., and Audrey E. Blakesley, 21, a secretary from Trenton, N.J.

Sixteen male members of the exploring contingent were working their way toward uncharted portions of the cave 200 feet below the earth's surface as the expedition's first day ended. Two were physicians and one was a bridegroom who interrupted his honeymoon.

A dozen of the men together with Miss Rogers and Miss Blakesley spent their first night at Advance Camp No. 1, normally six hours travel from the entrance.

Today a four-man party was searching for a satisfactory site for Advance Camp No. 2, six hours farther in on the edge of the unexplored territory.

From Advance Camp No. 2, small parties will go out on 18-hour trips probing what geologists estimate are 40 miles of unexplored passages.

Altogether, 35 men and women will explore, while 20 others handle the job of supplying them with food and equipment and maintaining an elaborate telephone system.

Reporter Phil Harsham of the Louisville Courier-Journal, who accompanied the first group in, frankly described the hardships. He telephoned:

"I admit it—I'm pooped."

"You crawl on your belly so long," he related, "that it is wonderful to get up just on your hands and knees."

Movie Stars Will Fly To Brazil on Thursday For Film Festival

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Eighteen motion picture personalities will fly from here Thursday to attend the first Brazilian International Film Festival at Rio de Janeiro and Sao Paulo Feb. 20 to March 3.

The Hollywood delegation will include: Gilbert Adrian, Robert Cummings, Irene Dunne, Rhonda Fleming, Joan Fontaine, Janet Gaynor, June Haver, Jeffrey Hunter, Mervyn Leroy, Jeanette MacDonald, Fred MacMurray, Ann Miller, Walter Pidgeon, Jane Powell, Gene Raymond, Edward G. Robinson, Barbara Rush and Collier Young.

TOKYO (AP)—A U. S. Air Force C119 Flying Boxcar, while landing yesterday, clipped the safety valve off the engine of a freight train standing at Oshinozu station. The train left two hours behind schedule because of the accident. No casualties were reported.

Broad Taxpayer Assistance Plan By Tax Collectors

The broad objective of the taxpayer assistance program conducted by the Internal Revenue Service this year is to help the taxpayers to help themselves in filling out their 1953 income tax returns, District Director of Internal Revenue E. O. Bookwalter announced today.

"Our purpose is to show taxpayers the correct method of preparing their returns, to render assistance and give advice on points their returns for them," Director Bookwalter said. "This program is directed at those taxpayers who require help in the form of advice as distinguished from an invitation to all taxpayers to come to our office and have their returns prepared by Internal Revenue personnel."

Elements in this program, include the assignment of competent Internal Revenue personnel to answer question and give advice both by telephone and in personal consultations at the District Director's office.

The office of this district director is located at the Postoffice, Sedalia. The telephone number is 702.

"Many taxpayers will have a single problem or question which we probably can answer quickly," Director Bookwalter concluded. "In these cases, a telephone call probably will suffice."

Woman Gives Birth Five Days After Try To Save Other Son

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A 31-year-old mother who almost drowned five days ago in a vain attempt to save the life of her 4-year-old son and a companion gave birth to a son yesterday.

Mrs. Betty Mitchell jumped into an ice-covered abandoned quarry last Tuesday when her son Michael and friend Michael Collins fell through the ice trying to retrieve a golf ball. The mother was saved by rescuers. She suffered from shock and exposure.

Red Radio Accuses US of Delaying Talks

TOKYO (AP)—Red China's propaganda radio today accused the Allies of stalling resumption of preliminary peace conference talks to create international tension and "cover up that America has no will to settle peacefully the Korean issues."

The Chinese-language broadcast, monitored in Tokyo, also denied the U.N. Command charge that the Communists are violating the armistice agreement by smuggling warplanes into North Korea.

Policeman Is Held, Charged With Holdup During Lunch Hour

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A veteran Philadelphia policeman who claimed he couldn't live on his $4,500 a year salary is held without bail today—charged with committing a holdup during his lunch hour.

Detective Capt. Albert Granitz said Schaffer told him he "went haywire" and robbed the shop because he couldn't live on his salary.

Granitz said Schaffer left his police hat and jacket in his car and put a gray sweater over his uniform shirt during the holdup.

When he returned to his station, at a bridge between Philadelphia and New Jersey, he learned police had a report on the holdup and drove off.

He was traced through his license plate and chased seven blocks before his car was forced to a curb, Granitz said.
